You have friends at United Public Adjusters LLC

BOAT DAMAGE

By Robert Cherin
South Florida Sun-Times

Next to your family, your home is your biggest investment.

Would you neglect the needs of your family? Of course not!

But what about your home?

Homes have needs too, that shouldn't be neglected. Not if you want to keep its property value up. Put up those shutters, fix those roofs and plumbing. After United Public Adjusters LLC published their article in Sun-Times, numerous phone calls came from readers who complained about plumbing and water leaks. Several cases involved homes along the Intracoastal that had water coming inside after a downpour, which is every week during the hurricane season. In cases like these we can be very helpful, assessing damage immediately and contacting their insurance adjuster. There are some things you don't do by yourself:

cut out an inflamed appendix and deal with an insurance company adjuster after a flood.

Be represented by a professional public adjusters that know exactly what you can collect, and will maximize your settlement for the best possible outcome. Homeowners represented by United Public Adjusters said, repeated-too small of an insurance claim settlement. We want you to get more from your insurance carrier, a just and fair settlement.

United Public Adjusters are experts in reading the all your rights. You can bet the insurance company's adjuster will cursorily take out a checkbook and offer you to settle for a sum as they see fit to settle it. Call us in first, at ettable wall of indifference, just let United Public Adjusters take a whack at it and watch it crumble.

We represent condominium boards of directors, property management companies and homeowners associations as well. United Public Adjusters had cases when the contractor company during major repairs or renovation for a building causes damage to the structure: concrete walls, burst pipes and resulting flood damage, to which we brought in building inspection engineers, expert reconstruction appraisers, and all of the additional support to the premises or site, and made precise, accurate and detailed estimates.

Be you a home- or business owner, apartment building manager, condo board member or a property manager, remember to call us when questions arise. United Public Adjusters' professional staff will take your request right away, in most cases you will get an immediate answer; we go that extra mile to research a question we are unsure of because we know what is at stake, your homes and businesses.

WHAT IF MY BOAT GOT DAMAGED?

United Public Adjusters also specializes in estimating boat and yacht damages such as; physical damage due to comprehensive, collision, fire, or theft losses, physical damage coverage for your trailer and accessories. If you own a deck boat, high performance boat, mini-jet boat, let us help you with your claim.

Whether your claim is small or large, United Public Adjusters will stand by you. That is what friends do.

WHAT IF I ALREADY SETTLED?

But even if you already settled a claim with your insurance company there is still time to file and get more. That is our job, to take over your claim and represent you. (You have five years to reopen a claim with your insurance company from the date of your loss.). It matters not if you made necessary repairs; as long as you keep all the receipts and documented what was repaired, you can still recover from your losses. Really, if you settled your claim with an insurance company, let our adjusters review your settlement for free.

All too often homeowners get offered tiny settlements because the insurance industry puts up what almost is an impen-
